

a CONS cell

- Lists in LISP have an explicit representation in memory, based on linked lists
- Lists in LISP/Scheme are built out of CONS cells
- ...where each CONS cell has:
 - a left part (its CAR)
 - and a right part (its CDR)